Who can withdraw a Complaint?

Only a complainant or their legal counsel or authorized representative may withdraw their Complaint.

When can I request to withdraw a Complaint at the Tribunal?

Once the Complaint is at the Tribunal, the complainant may complete this Notice of Withdrawal form at any time.

The respondent must be sent a copy of the Notice of Withdrawal and may, within 5 days of receiving it, object or make submissions regarding the withdrawal.

How do I file a Notice of Withdrawal form?

Send your completed and signed Notice of Withdrawal form to the Tribunal Registrar and the other parties (through email, fax or mail). The complainant is not required to get the consent of the respondent or the Director. However, the Tribunal will generally approve a withdrawal where consent is provided.

How does a respondent consent or respond to the Notice of Withdrawal?

The respondent signs the Notice of Withdrawal made by the complainant to consent to the withdrawal, and sends it to the Registrar.

The respondent may also object to the withdrawal by providing written submissions to the Tribunal no later than 5 days after receiving the complainant's Notice of Withdrawal.
